On or about June 15, 1977, the executive department was made aware that an appraisal by the Office of the City Clerk left doubt whether a budget existed for the next ensuing fiscal year. On June 22, 1977, the City Solicitor rendered the opinion that the vote of the Board of Aldermen was illegal, and the action taken by them was null and void; and that the budget submitted by the Mayor becomes a part of the appropriations for the fiscal year 1977-1978. The Office of the City Clerk on June 29, 1977, solicited the opinion of the Director of Municipal Accounts, Department of Corporations and Taxation, who on June 30, 1977, responded that since the City Solicitor had rendered an opinion, the Director of Accounts refrained from projecting himself into the matter.

Veto on Ordinance #131380, Automatic Amusement Devices, 131473

25 July 1977

The Honorable, the Board of Aldermen
City of Somerville
Massachusetts

Gentlemen:

I am returning Ordinance #131380, with my veto. Although I assume the accompanying permits are null and void without the Ordinance, I am returning them also with my veto (#131406, #131407, #131408, #131409, #131411, #131413, #131414, #131415, #131417, #131420, #131425)

There are many unanswered questions and concerns surrounding the issues involved, and I simply do not feel comfortable about them at the present time. My understanding from the beginning was that we would allow television tennis and hockey games in the city, a relatively harmless concession, since they can be purchased and are in use in hundreds of homes in the city. However, pinball machines and other coin operated mechanical devices present a much different and larger dimension, for instance the matter of ownership, distribution of profit, pressures to have such machines on premises, and the whole spectre of allowing a substantial strong-arm business to take over control of a sensitive part of this business community.

Respectfully yours,
S. Lester Ralph

22 November 1977

The Honorable, the Board of Aldermen
City of Somerville
Massachusetts

Gentlemen:

I am returning petitions numbered 13173 and 13174 to your Honorable Board with my veto.

There has been a serious dispute between this company and the nearby restaurant which I feel should be amicably resolved before these petitions are granted. I see no fairness in allowing one company to expand at the expense of possibly putting another company out of business.

I believe the matter requires further study, more discussion, and a resolution which is not all one-sided.

Respectfully yours

Veto of license to Union Automotive (James Davidian) for 137000
a Motor Vehicle Junk License, 3rd Class,
37 Mystic Avenue, Paper #131924

22 November 1977

The Honorable, the Board of Aldermen
City of Somerville
Massachusetts

Gentlemen:

I am returning petition number 131924 with my veto. It is with the greatest reluctance that I have signed renewal licenses for the all too many junkyards already established in this community. One thing is for certain, however, namely, that we do not need an additional one.

I hope this Honorable Board and the incoming Honorable Board will have higher standards for what types of business should be allowed to operate in this community. The enclosed petition can only spread blight in the surrounding area.

Respectfully yours,
S. Lester Ralph
